

Odisha prepares for Cyclone Yaas

In May 2021, The government evacuated people to safer places and took other precautionary measures to minimize the impact. In May 2021, The government evacuated people to safer places and took other precautionary measures to minimize the impact. In May 2021, The government evacuated people to safer places and took other precautionary measures to minimize the impact. In May 2021, The government evacuated people to safer places and took other precautionary measures to minimize the impact. In May 2021, The government evacuated people to safer places and took other precautionary measures to minimize the impact.

In February 2021, Maharashtra battled forest fires in 2021 using firefighting teams, helicopters, and the Indian Army.